Item 1. State the name of the corporation that is being dissolved.

Item 2. The required content of articles of dissolution depends on the circumstances of the dissolution:

If the corporation has not yet issued shares, its dissolution may be authorized by its board of directors or its incorporators pursuant to section 180.1401 of the Wisconsin Statutes. If the corporation is dissolving under that statute, mark the appropriate box and complete the bulleted items below it. The third bulleted item is a statement confirming that no shares of the corporation have been issued and no corporate debts remain unpaid. By signing and filing these articles, the corporation confirms that this statement is true and accurate.

In all other circumstances, the voluntary dissolution of a corporation must be proposed by its board of directors and approved by its shareholders pursuant to section 180.1402 of the Wisconsin Statutes. If the corporation is dissolving under that statute, mark the appropriate box and complete the bulleted item below it.

The optional bulleted item concerns the post-dissolution use of the corporate name. By default, a dissolving corporation retains the exclusive use of its corporate name for a 120-day period following the effective date of its articles of dissolution. A dissolving corporation can choose to shorten that period of exclusive use by so indicating on this form. Note that a dissolving corporation cannot use this form to lengthen the 120-day default period of exclusive use. If the dissolving corporation seeks to retain the exclusive use of the name for a longer period, it must register its name with the Department as provided under section 180.0403, Wis. Stats.

Item 3. This document must be executed by an officer of the corporation, subject to two limited exceptions: (1) if directors have not been selected, it may be signed by an incorporator identified in the initial articles of incorporation; and (2) if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee or other court-appointed fiduciary, it may be signed by the fiduciary. Corporate directors are not authorized to sign this document in their capacities as directors. (A corporate director who also serves as an officer may sign the document, but that person must sign in their capacity as an officer of the corporation.)

Drafter name. If the document is executed in Wisconsin, section 182.01(3) of the Wisconsin Statutes requires that it include the name of the drafter. If the document is not executed in Wisconsin, so indicate in the space provided for the drafter's name.

Optional delayed effective date/time. This document may declare a delayed effective date and time. The effective date/time may not be before, or more than 90 days after, the document is received by the Department of Financial Institutions for filing. If no effective date/time is specified, the document will take effect at the close of business on the date it is received for filing by the Department.
