You can preliminarily check the availability of an entity name using the Department’s corporate records database, which is publicly available through the Department’s website, but a final determination of name availability cannot be guaranteed until the document has been received, examined, and filed by the Department. Additional limitations may apply; see s. 183.0112, Wis. Stats. for further details.

Articles 3 & 4. Enter the name of the entity's registered agent and the email address of that agent. Annual report forms, notices and other official communications are directed to the entity's registered agent, so it is important to keep this information current. The entity may not name itself as its own registered agent.

Article 5. The entity must have a registered agent located at a registered office in Wisconsin. The registered office address must be identical to the registered agent's business office and must be an actual physical location with a street address, and not solely a P.O. Article 6. Enter the address of the principal executive office of the company. The office need not be located in Wisconsin.

Article 7. List the name and complete address of each organizer of the company.

Article 8 (optional). Attach any further provisions (optional) on additional pages labeled "Article 8," "Article 9," and so forth in sequential order. Additional provisions may set forth other information not addressed in Articles 1-7, including provisions:

- stating whether management of the company is vested in one or more managers
- identifying the purpose or purposes for which the company is organized
- specifying how the business and affairs of the company will be managed and regulated
- defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the company, its managers, and its members
- establishing a par value for transferable interests (or classes of interests) in the company

The company may also include any provision in its Articles of Organization that is required or permitted to be set forth in its written operating agreement. Provisions included in the Articles of Organization must not be inconsistent with other governing law.

Execution. The document must be executed by at least one organizer of the company.

Drafter name. If the document is executed in Wisconsin, section 182.01(3) of the Wisconsin Statutes requires that it include the name of the drafter. If the document is not executed in Wisconsin, so indicate in the space provided for the drafter's name.

Optional delayed effective date/time. This document may declare a delayed effective date and time. The effective date/time may not be before, or more than 90 days after, the document is received by the Department of Financial Institutions for filing. If no effective date/time is specified, the document will take effect at the close of business on the date it is received for filing by the Department.
