Item 1. Provide the name of the company.

Item 2. Provide the name of the person who is denying a grant of authority provided in a previously filed statement of authority.

Item 3. When denying the grant of authority, identify the effective date of the statement of authority that is being affected. If the previously filed statement of authority did not specify a delayed effective date, the effective date was the date it was accepted for filing by the Department.

Item 4. The document must be executed by the person denying authority.

Optional delayed effective date/time. This document may declare a delayed effective date and time. The effective date/time may not be before, or more than 90 days after, the document is received by the Department of Financial Institutions for filing. If no effective date/time is specified, the document will take effect at the close of business on the date it is received for filing by the Department.
