Item 1. Enter the name of the entity that previously filed the record that is being corrected. Enter the entity’s full name as it presently appears on the Department’s records, prior to any corrections made in this document. If the entity has registered with the Department under a fictitious name, provide the fictitious name as well as the entity’s true name.

Item 2. Specify the record to be corrected (e.g., articles of incorporation, annual report, articles of amendment, etc.) and the date it was filed by the Department. You can find the filing date by reviewing the entity’s online filing history, which is publicly accessible through the Department’s corporate records database on its website.

Item 3. Wisconsin law authorizes statements of correction under three sets of circumstances: (1) where a record was inaccurate when it was filed; (2) where a record was defectively executed; or (3) where the electronic transmission of the record to the Department was defective. Identify all that apply. Note that statements of correction may only be used to correct inaccuracies or defects in a record that existed at the time the record was filed. If the record was accurate when filed but information in it has subsequently changed, the entity can provide the updated information by amending the original filing.

Item 4. Identify the inaccurate statements or other defects in the filed record that are being corrected in this document. If the execution or electronic transmission of the record was defective, describe the manner in which it was defective. Attach additional pages if needed.

Item 5 [IF APPLICABLE]. For each inaccuracy or other defect identified in item 4 that requires correction, provide the corrected text. If the only inaccuracy to be corrected is a defective signature, leave this item blank and proceed to item 6.

Item 6 [IF APPLICABLE]. Complete this item only if the entity seeks to correct a defective signature on a previously filed record. Provide the corrected signature and other information in the space provided. For information regarding who may sign on behalf of the entity, refer to the applicable signature requirements for the document that is being corrected.

Item 7. Signature requirements for this document depend on the nature of the filer:

If the document is being filed by a business corporation, the document must be executed by an officer of the corporation, subject to two limited exceptions: (1) if directors have not been selected, it may be signed by an incorporator identified in the initial articles of incorporation; and (2) if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee or other court-appointed fiduciary, it may be signed by the fiduciary. Corporate directors are not authorized to sign this document in their capacities as directors. (A corporate director who also serves as an officer may sign the document, but that person must sign in their capacity as an officer of the corporation.)

If the document is being filed by a limited partnership or a limited liability limited partnership, the document must be executed by a general partner.

If the document is being filed by any other type of entity, it must be signed by a person authorized by the entity.

Effective date. A statement of correction is effective as of the effective date of the filed record it corrects, except (1) for purposes of sections 178.0103\(4\), 179.0103\(4\), and 183.0103\(4\), Wis. Stats., and (2) as to persons relying on the uncorrected filed record who are adversely affected by the correction. For those purposes and as to those persons, the statement of correction is effective when filed. A statement of correction may not state a delayed effective date.

FILING FEE. The statutory filing fee for this document varies depending on the type of entity that is making the correction:

- For limited partnerships and limited liability limited partnerships, the filing fee is $15.
- For all other entity types, including limited liability companies, business corporations, nonstock corporations, general partnerships, and limited liability partnerships, the filing fee is $40.
