IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The following items, which can be found on the Department of Financial Institutions' website at https://dfi.wi.gov/Pages/FinancialServices/LicensedFinancial/CreditServicesOrganization.asp, may assist you in meeting some of the requirements of conducting CSO activity. It is critical that a CSO comply with applicable Wisconsin Statutes, as transactions made in violation of those statutes may be voided and the customer may be entitled to recover any sums paid to the merchant pursuant to the transaction.

- Sample Information Statement: CSOs are required to provide an Information Statement to their Wisconsin customers pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 422.504.
- Notice of Cancellation: A Notice of Cancellation must accompany the contract that a CSO's Wisconsin customers sign when they engage the services of the CSO. This notice is required by Wis. Stat. § 422.505(2)
- Sample Contract: A CSO may wish to use this contract to evidence the agreement between itself and its Wisconsin customers
- Wisconsin Stat. Ch. 422 Subch. V: This is the section of the Wisconsin statutes that specifically pertains to CSOs.
- Title IV of the Consumer Credit Protection Act: This is the section of the Federal Trade Commission's regulation that pertains to CSOs.

PENALTIES: A person that fails to comply with the provisions of Wis. Stat. Ch. 422 Subch. V is subject to the penalties set forth under Wis. Stat. §§ 425.305, 425.401, and 426.301. Wis. Stat. § 425.305 provides that the customer shall be entitled to retain the goods, services or money received pursuant to the transaction without obligation to pay any amount and shall be entitled to recover any sums paid to the merchant pursuant to the transaction. Wis. Stat. § 425.401 provides that a person who willfully and knowingly engages in any conduct or practice in violation of Wis. Stat. Chs. 421 to 427 may be fined not more than $2,000 for each violation. Wis. Stat. § 426.301(1) provides that the administrator may recover from a person who violates Wis. Stat. Chs. 421 to 427 and 429, a civil penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $1,000 for each violation. Compliance with Title IV of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, where applicable, is also critical.

This form is required under Wis. Stat. § 422.502. Refusal to provide this information may result in the denial of registration. Failure to complete this application completely and accurately may result in denial or revocation of registration, and any other penalties as provided by law.
