In the Matter of

RACHEL CONNET, and
BCP MDG, LLC,

Respondents.

CONSENT ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST AND FOR RESTITUTION

No. S-238197 (EX)

I.

The Administrator of the State of Wisconsin, Department of Financial Institutions, Division of Securities (the "Division"), having legal authority and jurisdiction to administer and enforce Wisconsin Statutes Chapter 551 and the rules and forms adopted under this chapter (together the "Wisconsin Uniform Securities Law"), and having determined that this action is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, hereby enters this Order as follows:

II.

Division staff have presented evidence sufficient for the Administrator to make the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

A. Findings of Fact

Respondents

1. ERIC N. PAGE ("Page") is an adult male with the last known address of 68274 Columbia Ridge, Converse, TX 78109. Presently, Page is confined at Dane County Jail located in the Public Safety Building, 115 W. Doty Street, Madison, Wisconsin 53703.

2. RACHEL CONNET ("Connet") is an adult female who previously resided at 8321 W. Lorraine Place, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53222. Connet does not have a permanent residence at this time. Connet's mailing address is PO Box 595, Muskego, WI 53150-0595.

3. BCP MDG LLC ("BCP MDG") is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Wisconsin effective December 14, 2014, with a last known business address of 2256 W Fond Du Lac Ave, Milwaukee, WI 53206-1520. BCP is an abbreviation of Connet's company, Brew City Properties, LLC, and MDG is an abbreviation of Page's company, Milwaukee Development Group, LLC. Page and Connet are equal co-owners and the controlling persons of BCP MDG.

Conduct

4. Page, Connet, and BCP MDG LLC have never been registered with the Division in any capacity.

5. On or about September 22, 2009, the Division issued an Order of Prohibition and Revocation (Summary) for DFI Case No. S-09018 (EX) against Page (the "2009 Order") for violations of Ch. 551 involving the sale of promissory notes, including violations of Wis. Stat. § 551.41(2) (2009). A true and accurate copy of the 2009 Order and the 2009 Petition for Order are attached as Exhibit A.

6. The 2009 Petition for Order states as follows: Page was engaged in the business of buying and selling real estate at a profit with no participation by the investors in the management of the business. To raise capital for the business, Page offered and sold promissory notes to Wisconsin investors promising repayment of principal with interest payments at a specific date in the future, and in some cases secured by a mortgage on real estate. However, during the offer and sale of the promissory notes, Page failed to disclose to investors the existence of a prior Chapter 7 bankruptcy, prior foreclosure actions, and his failure to repay notes to previous investors when due. The promissory notes Page offered and sold to Wisconsin investors were securities under applicable law. Wis. Stat. § 551.02(13)(a) (2009).

7. The 2009 Order prohibited Page from making or causing to be made any further offers or sales of securities unless and until the securities qualify as covered securities or are registered under Ch. 551 or successor statute, prohibited violations of Wis. Stat. § 551.502(2), and revoked exemptions from registration under Ch. 551.

8. On or about March 29, 2013, in Dane County Case Number 12CF1888, Page was convicted of: (1) seven felony counts of making a false statement in the sale of securities in violation of the Wisconsin Uniform Securities Law and (2) one felony count of theft of an amount greater than $10,000. The court withheld sentence and placed him on probation for 11 years with the possibility of early discharge after 5 years if he made full restitution and complied with conditions including that he: "Not work with clients, mortgages or in any client advisory role that deal with financial matter."

9. At all times material, Connet was aware of the Division's 2009 Order and the 2013 felony convictions against Page.

10. According to Page, BCP MDG is a "real estate wholesaler." Essentially, BCP MDG buys and rehabs properties, and then flips them for a profit. The properties are typically low-income starter homes in need of repair. BCP MDG finances the purchases with HUD loans or private lender loans, and repays the loans with interest after the properties are refinanced or resold.

Investor KSK Solutions, LLC

11. At all times material, SK and KK were residents of Brookfield, Wisconsin. They own and operate KSK Solutions, LLC ("KSK Solutions") which is a Wisconsin real estate business that buys, rehabilitates, and sells real estate properties.

12. At no time did SK, KK, and KSK Solutions qualify as accredited investors.

13. On or about November 23, 2015, SK and KK through KSK Solutions paid $40,000 to BCP MDG via cashier's check for the purpose of rehabilitating two properties located in Milwaukee that BCP MDG had recently acquired. SK and KK expected to make a profit on their investment once the two rehabilitated properties were resold or refinanced by Page and Connet.

14. SK, KK and KSK Solutions were passive investors, relying on Page, Connet, and BCP MDG to manage all aspects of the enterprise and having no role other than to provide the funding for the real estate project.

15. In exchange for their investment, SK and KK through KSK Solutions received a promissory note dated November 24, 2015 signed by Connet. The promissory note was for the principal amount of $40,000 and a flat interest amount of $7,500. The principal and interest were due in one installment on March 24, 2016. As security for repayment of the loan, the promissory note offered a "2nd position" lien on the two Milwaukee properties to be rehabilitated using SK and KK's funds.

16. Two to three months after KSK Solutions provided the $40,000 to BCP MDG, SK inquired about the status of the rehabilitation of the two properties tied to the promissory note. Page told SK that they did not have the money to make the repairs. When SK asked Page how that was possible considering how much money KSK solutions had invested for that purpose, Page replied they used those funds for other expenses.

17. Page, Connet, and BCP MDG made no payments by the maturity due date, and as a result, the promissory note defaulted on or about March 24, 2016. The parties then agreed to a modification of the promissory note that called for the payment of late fees and penalties. As of the date of this Order, SK and KK through KSK Solutions have been paid $20,000 of the amount due on the promissory note—the remaining principal and interest are in default and outstanding.

18. Prior to the offer and sale of the promissory note, Page, Connet, and BCP MDG did not disclose to SK, KK and KSK Solutions:

i. The existence of the 2009 Order or the 2013 felony convictions; and

ii. That Page was on probation for securities fraud with conditions that Page "Not work with clients, mortgages or in any client advisory role that deal with financial matter."

iii. That KSK Solutions' $40,000 investment would be used for purposes other than rehabilitating the two properties tied to the promissory note.

19. The promissory note issued to KSK Solutions was not registered for offer and sale in Wisconsin pursuant to Ch. 551, Wis. Stats.

Investor MY

20. At all times material, MY was an adult resident of Waukesha, Wisconsin. MY did not qualify as an accredited investor at any time.

21. In September or October 2017, MY spoke with Connet and Page about their interest in purchasing, rehabilitating and selling a property located at 3800 N. 98th Street in Waukesha. Connet and Page said they were working with another investor on the project named Albert Jackson. Connet and/or Page emailed MY a copy of a signed "operating agreement" dated September 29, 2017 between Albert Jackson and BCP MDG for a limited liability company called Straightforward & Associates. According to the operating agreement, Albert Jackson and BCP MDG were the managing members of Straightforward & Associates, LLC.

The members each made capital contributions of $1,000, for the business purpose of engaging in building trades and new construction cleaning. The "operating agreement" purported to contain the legitimate electronic signatures of Albert Jackson and Rachel Connet, on behalf of BCP MDG.

22. Connet and Page further told MY they needed $20,000 to finance the rehabilitation of the subject property. They told her they would repay the loan within 120 days or sooner, in the amount of $24,000. They also said MY would receive a promissory note and a second position mortgage on the property, and MY would receive 1% interest per month if the loan was not repaid within 120 days.

23. Based on the representations of Connet and Page, on or about October 2017, MY paid $20,000 to BCP MDG LLC via wire transfer for the purpose of purchasing and rehabilitating a property located at 3800 N. 98th Street in Waukesha. The source of the funds was MY's Roth IRA.

24. MY was a passive investor, relying on Page, Connet, and BCP MDG to manage all aspects of the enterprise and having no role other than to provide the funding for the real estate project.

25. In exchange for her investment, MY received a loan agreement dated October 4, 2017 signed by Connet on behalf of BCP MDG. The loan agreement stated MY would receive $24,000 back within 120 days from October 6, 2017, a recorded second lien position, and an additional 1% interest on the loan for late payments, if any.

26. MY also received a promissory note dated October 19, 2017 signed by Connet on behalf of BCP MDG. The promissory note was for the principal amount of $20,000 and a flat interest amount of $4,000. The principal and interest were due in one installment on February 20, 2018. If the loan was not repaid by the maturity date, BCP MDG would pay MY $200 per month (1%) beginning March 20, 2018, for as long as the loan remain unpaid. The promissory note also references a lien on the subject property as security and collateral for the debt. Connet also signed a personal guarantee dated October 19, 2017, in which she guaranteed the payment of $24,000 to MY.

27. MY also received a mortgage dated October 20, 2017 in which BCP MDG as "Mortgagor" purports to convey and warrant all of its right, title and interest in the property located at 3800 N. 98th Street in Waukesha to Midland Trust Company for the benefit of MY as

Mortgagee. The mortgage explicitly states "The name of the record owner is: BCP MDG LLC."

28. Although the mortgage document is dated October, 20, 2017, Connet did not execute the mortgage on behalf of BCP MDG until March 7, 2018 and caused it to be registered on March 8, 2018.

29. BCP MDG defaulted on the promissory note. MY received two or three payments of $200 penalty interest and then did not receive any more interest or principal payments.

30. Contrary to the representation in the mortgage document signed by Connet, BCP MDG never was the record owner of the property located at 3800 N. 98th St. in Waukesha. Therefore, the mortgage BCP MDG provided to MY was invalid, and MY did not receive any legal interest in the property to secure the promissory note.

31. Albert Jackson did not agree to, and did not sign and execute the Straightforward & Associates "operating agreement" dated September 29, 2017, which BCP MDG provided to MY.

32. Prior to the offer and sale of the promissory note, Page, Connet, and BCP MDG did not disclose to MY:

i. the existence of the 2009 Order or the 2013 felony convictions;
ii. that Page was on probation for securities fraud with conditions that Page "Not work with clients, mortgages or in any client advisory role that deal with financial matter;"
iii. that BCP MDG had defaulted on the promissory note issued to KSK Solutions;
iv. that BCP MDG was not the record owner and would not become the record owner of the property located at 3800 N. 98th Street in Waukesha; and
v. that the purported Straightforward & Associates "operating agreement" between Albert Jackson and BCP MDG provided to MY was false.

All of these omissions included information which was material and necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

33. The promissory note issued to MY was not registered for offer and sale in Wisconsin pursuant to Ch. 551, Wis. Stats.

B. Conclusions of Law

Legal Authority and Jurisdiction

34. The Administrator has legal authority and jurisdiction over the conduct described above, pursuant to Wis. Stats. Ch. 551 and the rules and orders promulgated thereunder.

41. Through the conduct described above, Page and Connet violated Wis. Stat. § 551.402 by transacting business in this state as agents without being registered under Ch. 551 as agents and without being exempt from registration as agents.

42. Through the conduct described above, Page violated Wis. Stat. § 551.301 by offering and selling unregistered securities to persons in Wisconsin.

43. Through the conduct described above, Page willfully violated Wis. Stat. § 551.508 by offering and selling unregistered securities to persons in Wisconsin and by omitting to state material facts in connection with such offer and sale, in violation of the Division's 2009 Order issued against Page.
